Please fill out the Free Application for Federal Financial Assistance (FAFSA) online at http://fafsa.ed.gov and contact the home university’s financial aid office directly. CHEC staff can only assist with general questions regarding financial aid.

University Policies

The rules, policies, deadlines, fees, etc. associated with each degree program are those of the individual university offering the program. Students should always refer to their university catalog or their university’s representative(s) for information in these areas.

Required textbooks can be ordered from the home university’s bookstore or other textbook providers and mailed directly to a student’s home. There is no bookstore at the CHEC.

Supplies, such as scantrons, exam bluebooks, pens and pencils, can be purchased in the vending machine located inside the open lounge on the 2nd floor. Please contact your university representative or CHEC professor for information regarding their university’s textbook services and/or supplies needed for class.
Student Orientations

Partnering universities often offer their new student orientations at CHEC at the beginning of each new semester. Contact your university representative for more information on availability of student orientation.
