An Associate of Arts degree with coursework in Government is a stepping-stone to a liberal arts education. The second step is a bachelor’s degree from a college or university. The Government department features introductory courses in political science emphasizing American and Texas politics. The courses emphasize contemporary political analysis, critical thinking, and hands-on experiential learning exercises.

To earn an associate degree, complete the 42 credit hour General Education Core, and 18 credit hours of general studies electives and the Associate of Arts (AA) or Associate of Science (AS) degree requirements.
