Prerequisite: Meet TSI college-readiness standard for Reading and Writing; or equivalent. 3 credit hours. (A)

SOCI 2306 Human Sexuality

This course will provide an overview of the broad field of human sexuality. Topics will be covered from various perspectives - biological, sociological, anthropological, etc., but will focus primarily on the psychological perspective. The goal is for each student to learn factual, scientifically-based information that will provoke thought and contribute to his/her decision-making on sexual issues outside of the classroom.

Prerequisite: Meet TSI college readiness standard for Reading and Writing; or equivalent. 3 credit hours. (A)

Note: Student may take either PSYC 2306 or SOCI 2306 but not both.

SOCI 2319 Minority Studies

This course studies minority-majority group relations, addressing their historical, cultural, social, economic, and institutional development in the United States. Both sociological and social psychological levels of analysis will be employed to discuss issues including experiences of minority groups within the context of their cultural heritage and tradition, as well as that of the dominant culture. Core concepts to be examined include (but are not limited to) social inequality, dominance / subordination, prejudice, and discrimination. Particular minority groups discussed may include those based on poverty, race / ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, age, disability, or religion.

Prerequisite: Meet TSI college-readiness standard for Reading and Writing; or equivalent. 3 credit hours. (A)

SOCI 2340 Drug Use and Abuse

Study of the use and abuse of drugs in today's society. Emphasis on the physiological, psychological, and sociological factors that contribute to this behavior.

Prerequisite: Meet TSI college-readiness standard for Reading and Writing, or equivalent. 3 credit hours. (A)
