

Ongoing Prevention and Awareness Programs for Dating Violence, Domestic Violence, Sexual Assault, and Stalking

Program Title	Description	Sponsored By	How Often the Program is Offered	Where to Find Additional Information and/or a Current Schedule of Events
Campus Well Magazine	Campus Well by Student Health 101 is an online magazine that features articles on various topics affecting Collin College students. An email containing the link to the latest edition of Campus Well is sent out each month by Collin College’s Public Relations Department to every student’s Collin email account. Counseling Services also sends the link through email to Collin College faculty and staff members who are encouraged to share this information with their students. Additionally, Campus Well has an edition that is geared specifically toward student advocates and parents, and the link to that edition is included in the monthly emails. Topics covered in Campus Well include, but are not limited to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Collin College’s Counseling Services and other appropriate resources,</li> <li>2. Dating violence,</li> <li>3. Domestic violence,</li> <li>4. Healthy relationships,</li> <li>5. Mental health and wellness,</li> <li>6. Post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD),</li> </ol>	Counseling Services Office Public Relations Department	Emails are sent to all Collin College students, faculty, and staff once a month during the first week of each month. The magazine itself is accessible on a continuous basis using the links contained in the emails.	Call 972.881.5126 or go to https://collin.campuswell.com/.

Program Title	Description	Sponsored By	How Often the Program is Offered	Where to Find Additional Information and/or a Current Schedule of Events
	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>7. Sexual assault awareness and prevention,</li> <li>8. Sexuality and sexually transmitted infections (STIs),</li> <li>9. Stalking,</li> <li>10. Strategies to assist and support a friend who may be in an abusive relationship,</li> <li>11. Strategies to assist and support sexual assault survivors, and</li> <li>12. Tips for health and safety.</li> </ol>
Counseling Services Office Presentations and Seminars	Periodically throughout each academic year, Counseling Services Office staff members provide presentations and seminars on a variety of issues. Topics covered include, but are not limited to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Dating violence,</li> <li>2. Domestic violence,</li> <li>3. Healthy relationships,</li> <li>4. Mental health and wellness,</li> <li>5. Reporting procedures,</li> <li>6. Risk reduction strategies,</li> <li>7. Sexual assault, and</li> <li>8. Stalking.</li> </ol>	Counseling Services Office	Multiple times per semester at each of Collin College's campuses and centers	Call 972.881.5126 or go to www.collin.edu/studentresources/counseling/index.html .
Dating Violence, Domestic Violence, Sexual Assault, and Stalking: What You	To make it easier for Collin College students, faculty, staff, and other interested parties to access information, procedures, and various	District Dean of Students Office  Title IX Coordinators and Deputy Title IX Coordinators	Available to Collin College students, faculty, staff, and community	Go to www.collin.edu/titleix/DatingViolenceDom

Program Title	Description	Sponsored By	How Often the Program is Offered	Where to Find Additional Information and/or a Current Schedule of Events
Should Know Webpage	resources related to dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking, the District Dean of Students Office, Title IX coordinators, and deputy Title IX coordinators have created a webpage titled “Dating Violence, Domestic Violence, Sexual Assault, and Stalking: What You Should Know.” This webpage contains the most accurate, up-to-date information on the various state and federal laws governing these issues; Collin College’s policies and procedures; definitions of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking, and consent to sexual activity; procedures victims should follow; reporting procedures; and links to campus and community resources.		members on a continual basis	http://www.collin.edu/community/dignity/sexualviolence/sexualviolenceSexualAssaultStalking.html .
The Dignity Initiative	Collin College’s Committee Against Gender Violence and Oppression sponsors The Dignity Initiative, which is a multi-year district-wide campaign to educate the campus community about the following five (5) specific elements of gender violence: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Aggressor roles and responsibilities,</li> <li>2. Objectification of women,</li> <li>3. Sex trafficking,</li> </ul>	Committee Against Gender Violence and Oppression	Multiple times per semester at each of Collin College’s campuses and centers	Go to www.collin.edu/community/dignity/ .

Program Title	Description	Sponsored By	How Often the Program is Offered	Where to Find Additional Information and/or a Current Schedule of Events
	4. Gender violence, and 5. The global impact of oppression. The Dignity Initiative seeks to empower the campus community with specific action steps to end gender-based oppression. Additionally, the Dignity Initiative envisions a future in which women are treated with respect and honored as valuable members of cultures around the world. The Dignity Initiative is entering its ninth year at Collin College. Each semester, The Dignity Initiative focuses on a specific aspect of violence and how to stop violence against women and gender violence.
Healthy Relationships Canvas Module Educational Project Experience (EPE)	This online module may be issued by the District Dean of Students Office as part of the disciplinary penalty for students found responsible for an allegation of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking. The Healthy Relationships Canvas Module gives an overview of healthy personal relationships. This module includes information on the:	District Dean of Students Office	On an as-needed basis	Call 972.881.5604 or email dos@collin.edu.

Program Title	Description	Sponsored By	How Often the Program is Offered	Where to Find Additional Information and/or a Current Schedule of Events
	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Differences between healthy and unhealthy relationships;</li> <li>2. Premises and building blocks of a healthy relationship;</li> <li>3. Respect, honesty, trust, and open communication in relationships;</li> <li>4. Importance of seeking appropriate resources and assistance if students are in an unhealthy relationship; and</li> <li>5. Contact information if additional information or assistance is needed.</li> </ol> After the student watches the video, they must complete a 10-question quiz. The student is given a deadline by which the Healthy Relationships Canvas Module and Quiz must be completed. The student must earn a minimum grade of 70% on the quiz, and their quiz results are evaluated by the case adjudicator(s) before the disciplinary hold is removed from the student's records.
Healthy Relationships Seminar Educational	This one (1)-hour seminar may be issued by the District Dean of Students Office as part of the disciplinary penalty for students found responsible for an allegation of	District Dean of Students Office	On an as-needed basis	Call 972.881.5604 or email dos@collin.edu.

Program Title	Description	Sponsored By	How Often the Program is Offered	Where to Find Additional Information and/or a Current Schedule of Events
Project Experience (EPE)	dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking. This seminar is facilitated by the District Dean of Students Office and is not a mandated counseling session. This seminar can be tailored to address the reasons an individual student was brought in for disciplinary action. Topics covered include, but are not limited to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The characteristics of healthy relationships,</li> <li>2. Effective communication in relationships, and</li> <li>3. The benefits of change and motivations for change.</li> </ol>
I Got Your Back (IGYB) Bystander Intervention	Collin College's I Got Your Back (IGYB) Bystander Intervention program is an educational campaign to inform the entire Collin College community about the importance of bystander intervention and how to improve it. IGYB's purpose is to raise awareness, educate individuals on their roles as bystanders, and make Collin College a safer community for students, faculty, and staff. IGYB aims to teach everyone to be an active, effective bystander. The IGYB Bystander Intervention Committee has created two (2) videos	I Got Your Back (IGYB) Bystander Intervention Committee	At least one (1) time per semester at each of Collin College's campuses and centers	Go to www.collin.edu/studentresources/deanofstudents/BystanderIntervention.html .

Program Title	Description	Sponsored By	How Often the Program is Offered	Where to Find Additional Information and/or a Current Schedule of Events
	on bystander awareness and intervention. These videos titled “Have a Heart” and “Empowered Bystanders” are linked in several places on Collin College’s website (e.g., Bystander Intervention; Counseling Services; District Dean of Students Office; and Dating Violence, Domestic Violence, Sexual Assault, and Stalking: What You Should Know webpages). These videos can also be accessed directly at https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=QnPFwayMS8Y and https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ilkUvIOsjOo. The IGYB Bystander Intervention Committee has also created a webpage titled “Bystander Intervention” to house information and various resources related to this issue. This webpage contains accurate, up-to-date information on how to become an empowered bystander as well as links to the bystander intervention video series and various campus and community resources.
Preventing Harassment and Discrimination	This mandatory online training prepares faculty and staff to cultivate and maintain a workplace culture resistant to discrimination,	Human Resources Department	Must be completed by every Collin College employee one (1) time every	Call 972.758.3856 or email hr@collin.edu.

Program Title	Description	Sponsored By	How Often the Program is Offered	Where to Find Additional Information and/or a Current Schedule of Events
Faculty and Staff Online Training	harassment, and retaliation. It provides faculty and staff with the information and skills needed to promote intervention, empathy, and allyship. Additionally, it is designed to raise awareness about unlawful discrimination and harassment, including sexual harassment and sexual assault, by explaining the laws and providing insight on how to appropriately respond to and report misconduct. Tips on how to maintain a respectful work environment and campus community, including safe and positive options for bystander intervention, using inclusive language, and avoiding microaggressions, are presented. Topics covered include, but are not limited to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Appropriate campus and community resources;</li> <li>2. Bystander awareness and intervention;</li> <li>3. The Clery Act, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX), as amended May 19, 2020, the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2013 (VAWA), and other state and federal laws;</li> <li>4. Collin College's policies and procedures;</li> </ol>		two (2) academic calendar years

Program Title	Description	Sponsored By	How Often the Program is Offered	Where to Find Additional Information and/or a Current Schedule of Events
	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>5. Consent to sexual activity;</li> <li>6. Dating violence;</li> <li>7. Discrimination;</li> <li>8. Domestic violence;</li> <li>9. Gender-based harassment;</li> <li>10. Harassment;</li> <li>11. Reporting procedures;</li> <li>12. Risk reduction strategies;</li> <li>13. Sex discrimination;</li> <li>14. Sexual assault;</li> <li>15. Sexual harassment;</li> <li>16. Stalking; and</li> <li>17. Tips on how to stay safe and prevent all forms of discrimination, harassment, and sexual violence.</li> </ol>
Protecting Youth Summer Camp Worker Online Training	This mandatory online training for summer camp workers regarding child neglect and abuse prevention covers basic prevention methodology, reporting processes, and federal and state reporting requirements. Topics covered include, but are not limited to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Adverse childhood experiences,</li> <li>2. Boundaries and establishing healthy relationships,</li> <li>3. Bullying,</li> <li>4. Coercion,</li> <li>5. Collin College's policies and procedures,</li> </ol>	Human Resources Department	Must be completed by every Collin College summer camp worker one (1) time every two (2) academic calendar years	Call 972.758.3856 or email hr@collin.edu .

Program Title	Description	Sponsored By	How Often the Program is Offered	Where to Find Additional Information and/or a Current Schedule of Events
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>6. Creating a safe environment,</li> <li>7. Emotional abuse,</li> <li>8. Identifying and understanding physical and sexual abuse and neglect,</li> <li>9. Mandatory reporting,</li> <li>10. Neglect,</li> <li>11. Physical abuse,</li> <li>12. Recognizing vulnerable youth,</li> <li>13. Reporting procedures,</li> <li>14. Sexual abuse,</li> <li>15. Sexual assault,</li> <li>16. Sex trafficking,</li> <li>17. Supporting survivors, and</li> <li>18. Taking appropriate action.</li> </ul>
Sexual Misconduct and Relationship Violence Training	Periodically throughout each academic year, District Dean of Students Office staff members provide presentations and training sessions on sexual misconduct, relationship violence, and related topics. Additionally, during the Fall and Spring semesters, District Dean of Students Office staff members go into classes that are randomly selected by the campus provosts at each of Collin College's campuses and centers to present on dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking, and related topics. These presentations and training sessions are intended to inform Collin	District Dean of Students Office	Multiple times per semester at each of Collin College's campuses and centers	Call 972.881.5604, email dos@collin.edu , or go to www.collin.edu/studentresources/deanofstudents/index.html .

Program Title	Description	Sponsored By	How Often the Program is Offered	Where to Find Additional Information and/or a Current Schedule of Events
	College students, faculty, and staff about the Clery Act, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX), as amended May 19, 2020, the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2013 (VAWA), and how the provisions of these laws affect them. Topics covered include, but are not limited to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Appropriate campus and community resources,</li> <li>2. Bystander intervention,</li> <li>3. Collin College's policies and procedures,</li> <li>4. Consent to sexual activity,</li> <li>5. Dating violence,</li> <li>6. Domestic violence,</li> <li>7. Reporting procedures,</li> <li>8. Risk reduction strategies,</li> <li>9. Sexual assault,</li> <li>10. Stalking, and</li> <li>11. Tips on how to stay safe and prevent dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking.</li> </ol>
Title IX at Collin College Webpage	To make it easier for Collin College students, faculty, staff, and other interested parties to access information, policies, procedures, and various resources related to Collin College's Title IX complaint resolution	Collin College's Title IX Coordinators and Deputy Title IX Coordinators	Available to Collin College students, faculty, staff, and community members on a continual basis	Go to www.collin.edu/titleix/.

Program Title	Description	Sponsored By	How Often the Program is Offered	Where to Find Additional Information and/or a Current Schedule of Events
	process, the Title IX coordinators and deputy Title IX coordinators have created a webpage titled “Title IX at Collin College.” This webpage contains the most accurate, up-to-date information on the federal Title IX regulations, as amended May 19, 2020, as well various state laws, Collin College’s policies and procedures, and links to campus and community resources, reporting forms, and training materials.
Understanding Boundaries Seminar Educational Project Experience (EPE)	This one (1)-hour seminar may be issued by the District Dean of Students Office as part of the disciplinary penalty for students found responsible for an allegation of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking. This seminar is facilitated by the District Dean of Students Office and is not a mandated counseling session. This seminar can be tailored to address the reasons an individual student was brought in for disciplinary action. Topics covered include, but are not limited to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The importance of respecting boundaries in personal and professional relationships and</li> </ol>	District Dean of Students Office	On an as-needed basis	Call 972.881.5604 or email dos@collin.edu.

Program Title	Description	Sponsored By	How Often the Program is Offered	Where to Find Additional Information and/or a Current Schedule of Events
	2. Creating appropriate boundaries with others. An optional Consent Toolkit is also included that may be incorporated into the EPE at the discretion of the facilitator and/or at the direction of the district dean of students or designee.			