

1. What career area(s) interests you or can you at least rule out any areas?
2. Do you need a bachelor's degree to find a job in your preferred area?
 - a. If so, which schools offer degrees in this area?
 - b. What kind of courses are required and are these interesting to you also?
3. Do you need a graduate degree to find a job in your preferred area?
 - a. If so, which schools offer degrees in this area?
4. Is the market for your preferred area of career interest on the rise or decline?
5. What are the entry level jobs for your preferred career?
6. Is an internship required for your preferred career choice?
7. What is the average starting salary for your preferred area of interest?
8. Do you plan to begin your career in:
 - a. DFW area?
 - b. Texas?
 - c. Specific area of United States?
 - d. Anywhere?
8. Is there a market for your preferred career area in your desired location?
9. Where can you find the answers to the previous career questions?

There are many resources you can use including www.bls.gov. Another good idea is to speak with someone in your field of interest obtain information regarding your possible career choices.