Why would I want to take Continuing Education courses?

- These are courses you will take to increase your knowledge of skills—either to help you on the job or for your personal enrichment.
- You will not earn "traditional" college credits toward a degree, although you may earn Continuing Education Units or CEUs which will be recorded on a Continuing Education transcript as Continuing Education Units (CEUs).
- Some courses may last only a couple of hours; others may meet over several weeks.