Frequently Asked Questions About Graduation

Attire
Graduates and guests should dress comfortably. Men are encouraged to wear dark slacks, light colored shirts and dark shoes. Women are encouraged to wear cool, dresses, or pants with low heel shoes.

Times
Arrival Time
Graduates are reminded to arrive at the Credit Union of Texas Event Center (formerly known as the Allen Event Center) by 6 p.m. to line up for processional. Anyone arriving after 6:45 p.m. will be placed at the end of the graduate line.

Ceremony Length of Time
Typically, the graduation ceremony does not last more than three hours. The ceremony is expected to end by about 9:30 p.m. However, this is an estimate and the actual time may vary.

Regalia
Graduates participating in the Commencement Ceremony must wear a college-approved cap and gown, available for purchase at our campus bookstore.

Regalia Policy
Graduates are expected to wear regalia without altering the appearance. Please refrain from attaching or wearing flowers (corsages), pins, or alterations. Graduates who have EARNED an honor cord through academic achievement (graduation with a cumulative 3.5 GPA or higher) will be provided with the college-approved cord to wear. Cords will be given out before the ceremony. Students who are members of an honor society may purchase graduation regalia directly from an approved society. Approved list of societies: Phi Theta Kappa, Psi Beta, National Technical Honor Society, Sigma Kappa and Kappa Delta Pi. Graduates are asked to respect the tradition of graduation by wearing regalia as issued by Collin College. The appropriate way to wear the mortarboard is flat on top of the head and not off to the side or fixed to the back of the head. Tassels should be worn on the left.

Diplomas
All commencement participants will receive a commemorative diploma cover at the ceremony. All candidates will receive their diplomas through the mail after completion of degree requirements is certified. If you are a Spring Graduate, diplomas will be mailed by mid-July; and if you are a Summer Graduate, diplomas will be mailed by late September. Fall Graduates will receive their diplomas by late February.

Announcements
Students may purchase commencement announcements through our campus bookstore.

Guests
Students may invite two guests. Guest tickets will be required to enter the Credit Union of Texas Event Center. Seating is on a first-come basis; seating is not pre-assigned or reserved.
Photography
A photographer will take pictures during the ceremony. Graduates will receive an email with a link to order proofs.

Bag Policy
Credit Union of Texas Event Center has a clear bag and small clutch policy in place. The clear bag policy is designed to enhance guest safety and to ensure quick and easy entry into the arena. Please refer to their website at www.cutxeventcenter.com for full details regarding the bag policy.

Graduation Night Final Exams
It is possible that your final exam may coincide with the time of graduation. If this is the case, please speak with your professor to make arrangements to take the final at another time.
