

Emergency Medical Services Professions

Work on the front lines of medicine.

Be the first to respond to a 911 call. As an emergency medical technician (EMT) or paramedic, you will provide life-saving skills ranging from cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) to trauma management, and much more. In this career field, every day brings a new opportunity to make a positive impact in patients' lives.

Where do EMTs/Paramedics work?

EMTs and paramedics work for ambulance services, local governments, fire departments, prisons, hospitals, and all military branches.

About Collin College's Program

Collin College's Emergency Medical Services (EMS) professors have real-world experience in mobile intensive care units or hospital emergency rooms. This program offers advanced technology and evidenced-based practices within a culture that emphasizes integrity, accountability, and responsibility.

Emergency Medical Technicians and Paramedics

Average Salary: $37,900
Job Growth: 22.5%

Data obtained from JobsEQ (Collin County) and O*NET

Note: Average salary is as of 2019, and job growth is projected from 2020-2027. The earning potential for employees with certifications and Associate of Applied Science degrees may exceed the average salary.

Why Collin College?

- Small class size
- Hands-on training
- Experienced professors
- Preparation for EMT-Basic Certification
- State of the art equipment and simulations
- Robust community partnerships

Choose Your Education

Emergency Medical Services Professions Associate of Applied Science Degree
(60 credit hours)

Level 1 Certificate Paramedic
(42 credit hours)

Occupational Skills Award - Emergency Medical Services Professions
(9 credit hours)

Learn more at www.collin.edu/department/ems.

Collin College is an equal opportunity institution and provides educational and employment opportunities without discrimination on any basis protected by applicable law.

Published 11/20/2020. Information is subject to change. For the latest version, visit www.collin.edu/academics/info/.

13976-21PB

Contact Information

Lesley LeForge
LLeForge@collin.edu or email_workforce-programs@collin.edu