Harness the power of a career in electrical work with an education from Collin College. The construction boom in Collin County and beyond means the need for well-trained electricians is at its peak. Collin College’s Electrical program builds on foundational construction principles and basic electrical theory to teach the National Electrical Code, residential wiring, industrial wiring, and commercial wiring, as well as an introduction to construction management.

Careers in Electrical Work

Electricians
Average Salary: $48,500
23% growth

Data for Collin County obtained from JobsEQ and O*Net
Note: Average salary for occupation as of 2018 and job growth projected from 2019-2026

About Collin College’s Program

The Collin College Electrical program is designed to prepare students to enter the State of Texas apprentice program for electricians by providing the basics of the electrical wiring industry. The program also provides the opportunity to complete an Associate of Applied Science degree that is specific to the construction industry for career advancement.

Choose Your Education

Associate of Applied Science
Construction Technology - Electrical
(60 credit hours)

Two Level 1 Certificates
(24 credit hours each)

Level 2 Certificate
(45 credit hours)

Contact Information

Craig Johnson
Director of Architecture and Construction Programs
cjohnson@collin.edu

For Technical Campus info, email technicalcampus@collin.edu