

Photography – Fine Arts

Capture the decisive moment of your photography career with an Associate of Arts degree with an emphasis in photography at Collin College. This two-year degree is designed to prepare you to transfer to a four-year university or for entry level positions with arts community centers or galleries. Embrace creative growth while learning the technical aspects of photography.

Careers in Fine Art Photography

Curator

Average salary: $61,600

Job Growth: 29.6%

Photographer

Average salary: $60,300

Job Growth: 20.2%

Art Teacher

Average salary: $60,200

Job Growth: 22.7%

*Data for Collin County obtained from JobsEQ and O*Net
Note: Average salary for occupation as of 2021 and job growth projected from 2021-2028.*

About Collin College's Program

The mission of the Collin College Photography program is to foster a safe environment for experimentation and growth, striving to deliver an exceptional photography education based on a solid foundation, encouraging students to find their creative voices, through both commercial and fine art endeavors. Through leadership, knowledge, and confidence our students develop the tools for both professionalism and a life-long passion for learning and community engagement.

For more information about the Photography department, visit www.collin.edu/departments/photography.
Instagram: collincollege_photography
Facebook: CollinCollegePhoto

Learn more about certificate/degree requirements at www.collin.edu/academics/programs/EMPH_PHOT_1Overview.html.

Collin College is an equal opportunity institution and provides educational and employment opportunities without discrimination on any basis protected by applicable law.

Published 12/13/2021. Information is subject to change.
For the latest version, visit www.collin.edu/academics/info/.

14778-22PB

Choose Your Education

Associate of Arts,
Photography Emphasis
(60 credit hours)

Articulation Agreement
Collin College + Texas A&M University

Collin College Photography Program has university partnerships that accept transferrable courses, including a two-year articulation agreement with Texas A&M-Commerce.

Program Benefits

- Flexible scheduling (days, evenings, online)
- Full- and part-time enrollment
- Photographic Arts Lab and Digital Photographic Arts Learning Center provide materials and facilities for students to experience equal-opportunity, professional-level access to photographic equipment and processes.
- Classes taught by award-winning faculty who collectively have over 70 years of experience in commercial and/or fine art photography including studio operations management, personal business, editorial, gallery curatorial experience, and exhibitions.

Contact Information

Lisa Means
Professor

LMeans@collin.edu

Elizabeth Mellott
Professor
EMellott@collin.edu

Nate Rehlander
Professor
NRehlander@collin.edu