

Health Professions

The Collin College Health Professions program offers students foundational pathways that give them a broad understanding of the healthcare field. The program helps students learn and apply the skills needed in the following health professions tracks:

- Certified Nurse Aide
- EKG technician
- Patient Care Technician
- Phlebotomy Technician

Health Professions Careers

Certified Nurse Assistant

Average Starting Salary:
$34,200
Average Salary: $39,900
Job Growth: 23%

Patient Care Technician

Average Starting Salary:
$34,200
Average Salary: $39,900
Job Growth: 23%

Electrocardiography Technician:

Average Starting Salary:
$40,800
Average Salary: $62,500
Job Growth: 23%

Phlebotomy Technician:

Average Starting Salary:
$38,400
Average Salary: $46,100
Job Growth: 25%

Average salary for occupation as of 2024 and job growth projected from 2024-31

Choose Your Education

Associate of Applied Science
(60 credit hours)

Certificate Level 1
(17-29 credit hours)

Institutional Credentials
Leading to Licensure or Certification Award
(5-15 credit hours)

About Collin College's Program

- These programs are special admissions, which means students will need to complete a Health Professions application and clinical requirements.
- The curriculum contains both transfer and workforce courses. The workforce courses are offered at most Collin College campuses. Visit our website for more details.

Collin College is an equal opportunity institution and provides educational and employment opportunities without discrimination on any basis protected by applicable law.

Published 3/13/2025. Information is subject to change.
For the latest version, visit www.collin.edu/academics/info/.

18312-25PB

Contact Information

HealthProfessions@collin.edu

Department

Overview

Department page:
www.collin.edu/department/healthprofessions

Overview page:
www.collin.edu/academics/programs/health-professions-overview

Scan the QR codes for more information.