

Air Force ROTC

Collin College students are given the opportunity to participate in the Air Force ROTC program as crosstown students at the University of North Texas in Denton, Texas.

Students are required to attend an academic class, leadership laboratory and physical training at the University of North Texas once a week during the fall and spring academic semesters.

The AFROTC mission is to develop quality leaders to serve our country as officer in the United States Air Force. As a part of the program, you will prepare yourself to become an Air Force Officer while completing your degree as a college student. Students may participate in the four-year or three-year programs.

Students enroll in AFROTC classes at the same time and in the same manner as other Collin courses. Business and Computer Systems administers the offering of Air Force ROTC courses for Collin College; students register and pay via Collin College in accordance with published payment deadlines.
