

REHABILITATION AIDE OCCUPATIONAL SKILLS AWARD (OSA)

Interested in a career in: Physical Therapy
Physical Therapy Assistant Athletic Training
Occupational Therapy Chiropractic
Sports Medicine Personal Training

If so, the Rehabilitation Aide OSA is for you! This program is designed to give an inside view to the world of rehabilitation and prepare students to work as a rehabilitation aide. Our program is a great start for anyone interested in the rehabilitation or physical/occupational therapy fields of study, or for anyone looking to jumpstart their career in the healthcare field.

What are the classes?

1st 8 weeks

- PTHA 1201 The Profession of Physical Therapy
- PTHA 1409 Introduction to Physical Therapy

2nd 8 weeks

- HPRS 2310 Basic Health Professions II
- PTHA 1160 Clinical Experience

The RA OSA is offered over 1 semester with 2- 8 week terms.

Course Details:

- Location: Frisco Campus
 - For application information, visit www.collin.edu/departments/physicaltherapist Rehabilitation Aide OSA section of the website or contact Johanna Sandoval at jsandoval@collin.edu
- Applications accepted throughout the year.

Estimated Program Cost:

Tuition and fees	$644
Textbooks	$200
Estimated Total	$844

Certification Examination $109

*available to take near the end of the last semester, but not required

Why enroll in this program?

- To learn about careers in rehabilitation
- To springboard your career into rehabilitation
- To learn the skills as a PT aide/technician
- To prepare for entry into the PTA program
- To pursue a rewarding career
- To help patients

Where do Rehabilitation Aides work? Hospitals, Physical Therapy Outpatient Clinics, Sports Medicine Clinics, Chiropractic Clinics, Skilled Nursing Facilities, Rehabilitation Hospitals, Nursing Homes, etc.
Average Salary: $10-16/hour
Experience in the Rehabilitation Profession: Priceless

