Audition Notice

WHAT: Fragments of Us – a collaboration with Garage Arts Project

The end of a relationship can be difficult. By exploring endings through the material objects that we hold onto and associate with relationships, an ensemble of actors, dancers, and spoken word artists will create a unique and completely original piece of theatre. Based on written and other materials collected in community workshops by the Garage Arts Project, and in collaboration with the Collin College Fine Arts Division, this ensemble will bring their original inspirations to life before your eyes. Be among the first to experience this brand new, never-before seen work of devised theatre!
