It is my responsibility to verify the transferability of courses with higher education institutions of choice.

I understand that enrolling in college level, academic courses under 16 years of age means I am considered an incoming freshman student, and requires proving college level readiness through the Texas Success Initiative (TSIA2) or a qualifying exemption. Please be aware that once a Collin College course is completed or withdrawn from, it will remain on the student's official college transcript for the duration of their academic career. I understand that because I am considered an entering freshman student I will need to file a degree plan and will need prove college readiness through taking the TSIA2 or providing proof of an exemption for TSIA2.

I am not eligible to take Kinesiology (KINE) or developmental education courses for concurrent credit; they will be dropped from my schedule if I register for these.

I fully understand and acknowledge that if I wish to drop or withdraw from a college course(s), it is my responsibility to first discuss this matter with my homeschool administrator. Upon approval, I must drop/withdraw myself from my course(s) on Workday. If I experience any technology issues, I am to reach out to homeschool@collin.edu prior to the drop/withdraw deadlines. I understand that if enrolled in concurrent credit course(s) taught on a Collin College campus, I will be required to provide proof of a valid meningitis vaccine or exemption at least 10 days prior to the start of the course.
