

PERSONNEL POSITIONS

DD
(LOCAL)

The Board delegates to the District President authority to employ administrative personnel, faculty, and other full-time personnel for Board-approved budgeted positions. A personnel report will be provided to the Board as an information item or through specific information that is accessible in the administrative systems of the College District on new full-time employees, employee promotions, changes, retirements, and separations. [See DC(LOCAL)]

The District President or designee will employ part-time personnel based on recommendation of the appropriate administrator and based on need.

The job descriptions and qualifications for all positions will be approved by the human resources office prior to posting a vacant position. Job descriptions will be maintained by the human resources office. Except in cases where unusual circumstances exist, all employees will be classified as one of the following.

Contract Employment

An employee in a duly authorized and funded full-time faculty position will be considered a full-time faculty member with a full-time faculty contract.

The District President will be employed with a full-time administrative contract.

Noncontract Employment

Staff and Administrative Employees

Full-time employees paid on the staff and administrative salary schedules are considered noncontractual personnel and are hired on an at-will basis. All noncontractual employees are hired based upon need and may be released at any time for any reason or for no reason at the sole discretion of the College District.

Temporary Salaried
Employees

Full-time employees hired based on a short-term need are considered temporary full-time employees and may be released at any time for any reason or for no reason at the sole discretion of the College District without the right to appeal.

Temporary Grant-
Funded Employees

Full-time employees, employed in positions that are funded by federal or other special funding, have a term of employment equal to the term of the temporary assignment or until the loss of one or more funding sources, whichever occurs first. Such employees may be released at any time for any reason or for no reason at the sole discretion of the College District. The College District may continue to employ an individual after the loss of a funding source at a reduced compensation rate, where the reduction is proportionate to the loss of funding.

Employee with Supplemental Assignments

Supplemental duties may from time to time be assigned to full-time employees. No property right to continued employment exists in such supplemental duties, and such assignments may be terminated for any reason or for no reason, at the sole discretion of the College District.

Noncontract
Employees Without Benefits

Noncontract employees whose assigned workload (hours worked per week) and compensation rate do not meet the state's criteria for eligibility for the state-provided benefits package are considered part-time without benefits and may be released at any time for any reason or for no reason at the sole discretion of the College District without the right to appeal.

Definition of Probationary Employee

The term "probationary employee" will refer to new and rehired, both contract and noncontract full-time employees in the first 90 days of full-time employment with the College District. Employees in a new employee probationary status may be dismissed at any time during the probationary period for any reason or no reason at the sole discretion of the College District and without the right to appeal.
