To view the Board policies associated with this chapter, go to <https://pol.tasb.org/PolicyOnline/PolicyDetails?key=304&code=FMA>.

Solely in the case where expulsion is recommended and affirmed, a student may appeal to the College District President or designee. An appeal to the College District President or designee will be held on the request of a student appealing the designated Leadership Team member's decision and affirmation of expulsion. The appeal request must be submitted in writing within 10 College District business days of the designated Leadership Team member's decision. To initiate the appeal to the College District President or designee, the student must submit the Disciplinary Appeal Request Form contained in the designated Leadership Team member's decision documents on or before the tenth College District business day following the designated Leadership Team member's decision.

The College District President or designee may request a meeting with the student prior to issuing a final administrative decision.

The College District President or designee will review all recommendations for expulsion, whether or not the student chooses to proceed through the disciplinary appeals process. The designated Leadership Team member will forward the recommendation for expulsion and evidence to the College District President or designee for review and final consideration. The College District President or designee may act to affirm, modify, or reverse the recommendation for expulsion.

Failure to Appear for the College District President Meeting

The College District President or designee may impose an appropriate disciplinary penalty or penalties upon a student who fails without good cause to appear for the meeting. For purposes of assessing an appropriate disciplinary penalty or penalties, the College District President or designee may consider the evidence included in the student's petition and forwarded by the designated Leadership Team member.

After the Review

The student will be notified in writing of the College District President or designee's decision within 10 College District business days. The College District President or designee's decision is final and non-appealable. Unless otherwise specified in writing, expulsion will have College District-wide effect, and an expelled student may not enroll for admission to any campus without the College District President or designee's approval unless the student's petition to revoke the expulsion is approved. For more information, see Chapter 19: Petition to Revoke Expulsion in this Student Code of Conduct.
