Statement of Non-Discrimination

Collin College prohibits discrimination, including harassment, against any student on the basis of race, color, national origin, disability, religion, age, or any other basis prohibited by law. Retaliation against anyone involved in the complaint process is a violation of Collin College policy and is prohibited.

Discrimination

Discrimination against a student is defined as conduct directed at a student on the basis of race, color, national origin, disability, religion, age, or on any other basis prohibited by law that adversely affects the student.

Discrimination based on race, color, or national origin includes discrimination, including harassment, based on an individual's actual or perceived:

1. Shared ancestry or ethnic characteristics; or
2. Citizenship or residency in a country with a dominant religion or distinct religious identity.

This prohibition encompasses, but is not limited to, antisemitism and discrimination based on religion, including, but not limited to, discrimination against students of any faith, or of other religions when based on shared ancestry, ethnic characteristics, or citizenship or residency in a country with a dominant religion or distinct religious identity.

"Antisemitism" has the meaning found in Section 448.001 of the Texas Government Code, which "means a certain perception of Jews that may be expressed as hatred toward Jews. The term includes rhetorical and physical acts of antisemitism directed toward Jewish or non-Jewish individuals or their property or toward Jewish community institutions and religious facilities." This definition is provided in Board policy FFDB (LOCAL) in accordance with Executive Order GA-44 \(2024\).

Prohibited Harassment

Prohibited harassment of a student is defined as physical, verbal, or non-verbal conduct based on the student's race, color, religion, national origin, disability, age, or any other basis prohibited by law that is so severe, persistent, or pervasive that the conduct limits or denies a student's ability to participate in or benefit from Collin College's educational program.

Examples

Examples of prohibited harassment may include offensive or derogatory language directed at another person's religious beliefs or practices, accent, skin color, religious attire, or need for accommodation; threatening, intimidating, or humiliating conduct; offensive jokes, name-calling, ethnic, racial, or ancestral slurs, or rumors; physical aggression or assault; display of graffiti, symbols, or printed material promoting racial, ethnic, or other negative stereotypes; or other kinds of aggressive conduct such as theft or damage to property.

Retaliation

Collin College prohibits retaliation by a student or Collin College employee against a student alleged to have experienced discrimination or harassment or another student who, in good faith, makes a report of harassment or discrimination, serves as a witness, or otherwise participates in an investigation.

Examples

Examples of retaliation may include threats, rumor spreading, ostracism, assault, destruction of property, unjustified punishments, or unwarranted grade reductions. Unlawful retaliation does not include petty slights or annoyances.

False Claims

A student who intentionally makes a false claim, offers false statements, or refuses to cooperate with a Collin College investigation regarding discrimination or harassment will be subject to appropriate disciplinary action.

Prohibited Conduct

In this policy, the term "prohibited conduct" includes discrimination, harassment, and retaliation as defined by this policy, even if the behavior does not rise to the level of unlawful conduct.

Reporting Procedures

Student Report

Any student who believes that they have experienced prohibited conduct or believes that another student has experienced prohibited conduct should immediately report the alleged acts to a responsible employee. For more information, see the Responsible Employee subsection in this document.

Employee Report

Any Collin College employee who suspects and any responsible employee who receives notice that a student or group of students has or may have experienced prohibited conduct will immediately notify the appropriate Collin College official listed in this policy and will take any other steps required by this policy.

Exceptions

A person who holds a professional license requiring confidentiality, such as a counselor, or who is supervised by such a person will not be required to disclose a report of prohibited conduct without the student's consent.

A person who is a non-professional counselor or advocate designated in administrative procedures as a confidential source will not be required to disclose information regarding an incident of prohibited conduct that constitutes personally identifiable information about a student or other information that would indicate the student's identity without the student's consent, unless the person is disclosing information as required for inclusion in Collin College's Annual Security and Fire Safety Report (ASFSR) under the Clery Act. For more information, see Board policy GCC (LEGAL) located at <https://pol.tasb.org/PolicyOnline/PolicyDetails?key=304&code=GCC>.

Responsible Employee

For purposes of this policy, a "responsible employee" is an employee:

1. Who has the authority to remedy prohibited conduct.
2. Who has been given the duty of reporting incidents of prohibited conduct.
3. Whom a student reasonably believes has the authority to remedy prohibited conduct or has been given the duty of reporting incidents of prohibited conduct.

Collin College designates the following persons as responsible employees: any instructor, any administrator, or any Collin College official defined in the Definition of Collin College Officials subsection in this document.

Definition of Collin College Officials

For the purposes of this policy, Collin College officials are the ADA/Section 504 coordinators, Title IX coordinators, deputy Title IX coordinators, designated Leadership Team members, and the College District President.

ADA/Section 504 Coordinators

Reports of discrimination based on disability may be directed to the appropriate ADA/Section 504 coordinator. Collin College designates the following persons to coordinate its efforts to comply with Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 \(ADA\), as amended, which incorporates and expands the requirements of Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended:

Other Anti-Discrimination Laws

The College District President or a designee will serve as coordinator for purposes of Collin College compliance with all other anti-discrimination laws, including Title VI.

Alternative Reporting Procedures

A student will not be required to report prohibited conduct to the person alleged to have committed the conduct. Reports concerning prohibited conduct, including reports against the ADA/Section 504 coordinators, may be directed to the College District President.

A report against the College District President may be made directly to the Board of Trustees (Board). If a report is made directly to the Board, the Board will appoint an appropriate person to conduct an investigation.

Timely Reporting

Reports of prohibited conduct will be made as soon as possible after the alleged act or knowledge of the alleged act. A failure to immediately report may impair Collin College's ability to investigate and address the prohibited conduct.

To file a Student Incident Report with the District Dean of Students Office, call 972.881.5604, email dos@collin.edu, or go to https://collin.guardianconduct.com/incident-reporting?incident_type=Student Incident Report.

Students who need to report a crime can contact the Collin College Police Department at 972.578.5555. If a student requests assistance with reporting to law enforcement, a Collin College official will help the student with that process. Students have the right not to report a crime or to decline to notify authorities, including law enforcement, if they so choose.

Investigation of the Report

Collin College may request, but will not require, a written report. If a report is made orally, the Collin College official will reduce the report to written form.

Initial Assessment

Upon receipt or notice of a report, the Collin College official will determine whether the allegations, if proven, would constitute prohibited conduct as defined by this policy. If so, the Collin College official will immediately authorize or undertake an investigation, except as provided in the Criminal Investigation subsection in this document.

If the Collin College official determines that the allegations, if proven, would not constitute prohibited conduct as defined by this policy but may constitute a violation of other Collin College rules or regulations, the Collin College official will refer the complaint for consideration under the appropriate policy.

Interim Action

If appropriate and regardless of whether a criminal or regulatory investigation regarding the alleged conduct is pending, Collin College will promptly take interim action calculated to address prohibited conduct prior to the completion of Collin College's investigation.

Collin College Investigation

The investigation may be conducted by the Collin College official or a designee or by a third party designated by Collin College, such as an attorney. The investigator will have received appropriate training regarding the issues related to the complaint and the relevant Collin College policy and procedures.

The investigation may consist of personal interviews with the person making the report, the person against whom the report is filed, and others with knowledge of the circumstances surrounding the allegations. The investigation may also include analysis of other information or documents related to the allegations.

Criminal Investigation

If a law enforcement or regulatory agency notifies Collin College that a criminal or regulatory investigation has been initiated, Collin College will confer with the agency to determine if Collin College's investigation would impede the criminal or regulatory investigation. Collin College will proceed with its investigation only to the extent that it does not impede the ongoing criminal or regulatory investigation. After the law enforcement or regulatory agency has completed gathering its evidence, Collin College will promptly resume its investigation.

Concluding the Investigation

Absent extenuating circumstances, such as a request by a law enforcement or regulatory agency for Collin College to delay its investigation, the investigation should be completed within 60 College District business days from the date of the report; however, the investigator will take additional time if necessary to complete a thorough investigation.

The investigator will prepare a written report of the investigation. The report will be filed with the Collin College official overseeing the investigation.

Notification of the Outcome

Collin College will provide written notice of the outcome, within the extent permitted by the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act \(FERPA\) or other law, to the victim and the person against whom the complaint is filed.
