

Chapter 4: Disruptive Activities and Behavior

Board policy FLB \(LEGAL\) is associated with this chapter.

Collin College prohibits any disruptive activities and/or behavior that interferes with administration, discipline, expressive activities, functions (including public service functions), research, teaching, or other Collin College-sponsored activities. A person commits an offense if the person, alone or in concert with others, intentionally engages in disruptive activity on the campus or property of Collin College.

“Disruptive activities” are:

1. Obstructing or restraining the passage of persons in an exit, entrance, or hallway of a building without the authorization of the administration of Collin College;
2. Seizing control of a building or portion of a building to interfere with administrative, educational, research, or other authorized activity;
3. Preventing or attempting to prevent by force or violence or the threat of force or violence a lawful assembly authorized by the Collin College administration so that a person attempting to participate in the assembly is unable to participate due to the use of force or violence or due to a reasonable fear that force or violence is likely to occur;
4. Disrupting by force or violence or the threat of force or violence a lawful assembly in progress; or
5. Obstructing or restraining the passage of a person at an exit or entrance to the campus or property or preventing or attempting to prevent by force or violence or by threats of force or violence the ingress or egress of a person to or from the property or campus without the authorization of the administration of Collin College.
