

Responding to Immediate Threats

Definition of Immediate Threat:

An “immediate threat” involves a direct threat of physical harm to self or others, which endangers any member of the Collin College community (e.g., assault, brandishing a weapon, sexual assault).

Off-Campus Reporting Procedures:

The procedures listed below should be followed when responding to an immediate threat that occurs while attending an off-campus Collin College-sponsored activity. This information is not intended to encourage you to interfere with or stop the behavior, unless doing so aids in self-defense or self-preservation.

Step One: Dial 911 and report the incident.

Step Two: Notify your immediate supervisor.

Step Three: If a Collin College student is involved, notify the student’s emergency contact.

On-Campus Reporting Procedures:

The procedures listed below should be followed when responding to an immediate threat that occurs on Collin College property, in an online environment, or while attending an on-campus Collin College-sponsored activity. This information is not intended to encourage you to interfere with or stop the behavior, unless doing so aids in self-defense or self-preservation.

Step One: Call the Collin College Police Department* at 972.578.5555 or x5555 (from a campus phone) and provide the following information:

1. Your full name.
2. The location of the incident (e.g., campus, building, room number, etc.).
3. A description of the incident including when it occurred, what happened, and who was involved.
4. A phone number where you can be reached if additional information is needed.

**The Collin College Police Department is available by phone 24 hours a day, 365 days a year.*

Step Two: If instructed by the Collin College Police Department, dial 911 and report the incident.

Step Three: If the incident involves a direct threat of harm to others, submit a Student Incident Report to the Dean of Students Office once the situation has stabilized. The Student Incident Report form is located at <https://bit.ly/2Rs60jT>.

If the incident involves a direct threat of harm to self, contact Counseling Services at 972.881.5126. You can also submit a SOBI Referral once the situation has stabilized. The SOBI Referral form is located at <https://bit.ly/2uhYeyc>.
