

FM System

The FM (Frequency Modulated) System is an assistive listening device that helps students who may have a hearing loss. It is a wireless system that operates on special radio frequencies that are pre-set by the student.

The system consists of 3 microphones used for varying listening situations, Bluetooth connectivity, and a hearing instrument remote control.