Frisco Campus Writing Center Online and On Campus Workshop: Finding Evidence to Support Your Position

Wednesday, October 22, 3:00pm – 4:00pm

Your professor has assigned you an argumentative essay or a position paper, and oh yeah, you have to include evidence from library resources! Do you turn to databases you're familiar with like Academic Search Complete or JSTOR, or do you go straight to Google? How about neither? In this workshop, we will look at three library databases that are tailor-made for argumentative essays and position papers. You will learn how to use them and incorporate the information you find into your paper.
