

Available Options and Interim Action

Collin College must provide certain options and interim action if the victim requests them and they are reasonably available, regardless of whether a victim chooses to report to local law enforcement, the Collin College Police Department, or the Title IX complaint resolution process. Contacting any of these campus resources, with the exception of the appropriate Title IX coordinator or deputy Title IX coordinator, is not considered an official report to Collin College of prohibited conduct. Go to www.collin.edu/titleix/ReportingIncidentsofProhibitedConduct.html information on how submit an official report of prohibited conduct.

Available options and interim action along with information on who to contact to access them are outlined below.

No Contact Directives and Removals

If appropriate, and depending on the nature of the dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking incident, Collin College may issue a no contact directive to both the complainant and respondent. The purpose of a no contact directive is to prevent any form of contact (e.g., online postings, phone call, physical contact, retaliation, sending emails, sending text messages, stalking, having anyone else initiate contact with the other party, etc.) between the parties pending completion of the Title IX complaint resolution process.

If appropriate, and depending on the nature of the dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking incident, Collin College may issue a temporary removal (e.g., temporary immediate suspension, temporary removal from Collin College Student Housing, temporary employee administrative leave) pending completion of the Title IX complaint resolution process. The purpose of a temporary removal is to protect the physical health and safety of any student, employee, other individual, and the entire Collin College community by temporarily removing the student respondent or employee respondent from campus. During the temporary removal period, the student respondent or employee respondent is not allowed on any Collin College property or to attend any official Collin College activity, and is required to contact the appropriate Title IX coordinator, deputy Title IX coordinator, or designee to obtain permission prior to arriving on any Collin College campus for official meetings pertaining to the Title IX complaint resolution process.
